1. In July 1952 an undetermined number of Russian troops were bivouacked in a forest on the east bank of the Glda River five or six kilometers north of the confluence of the Glda and the Note Rivers, near Pila (Schneidemuehl - P54/R94).
2. Not far from the bank of the river there was a field vehicle repair station at which often as many as 50 vehicles were parked. Beyond the repair station were tents which had been pitched by the soldiers.
3. Trespassing was strictly forbidden in the wooded area, but fishermen were allowed to walk along the river bank.
